1. What good things do you believe you must have in order to feel hungry and complete? In what ways are you elevating these to the ultimate position?
2. Read Genesis 29:16-20. In what ways does Jacob elevate Rachel to ultimate importance in his life?
3. In what way is a relationship with another person providing you with fulfillment?
4. How have your boundaries been shifted because of a relationship?
5. What does it look like when you elevate our spouse or significant other into God's place? In what ways does this affect your relationships with your children?
6. Read Genesis 29:31-35. How does your life shift when we prioritize seeking relationship with God over others?
7. Do you see yourself anywhere in this story? Whose situation do you identify with?
