

GROUPLINK

CLEAR LAKE CAMPUS

WHAT CAN I EXPECT IN SMALL GROUP?

Groups meet most weeks (you'll take holidays off and such) on a variety of days at different times. The bulk of the meeting time is focused around a biblical study led by the small group leader (Navigator), prayer, and social time.

Kristin and Manuel have been married for twelve years. They have three kids between the ages of 7 and 14. Manuel is an engineer and Kristin is an amazing social care worker for an awesome foster care agency in the community. Kristin enjoys spending time with friends, photography, good movies/books, and is really fun and funny. Manuel loves movies, books, tennis, martial arts, deep conversations, and thinks he's funny. Both of us have a passion for people, adoption, and most of all Jesus. Jesus has been our rock during the toughest storms of marriage, parenting, health and work. We don't know where our life would be if it wasn't for Jesus.

*Our couples small group is more like a coordinated men's and women's small group of married couples that meet every other week. For example, women meeting one week (while the men stay home) and the men swapping out the following week. Same study is done both weeks. Target audience is couples that want to do studies together but struggle to find babysitting for kids.

MEETING DETAILS:
Meeting in person in Brook Forest

We have been members of CCCC since 2011. We live in the LaPorte/Deer Park area, and have 2 children ages 8 and 4. We will meet the first 3 weeks all together, then we will split into men and women: the men will meet one week and the women will meet the next. We will come back together regularly, but hope that this schedule for group will allow couples with children to attend group more regularly, not have the burden of paying for childcare, and have the intimacy that happens in a men or women's group while also being able to do group with your spouse. Our studies will help us know God's Word, grow us as disciples of Christ, and deepen our relationships together.

MEETING DETAILS:

Meeting will be a mixture of online and in person

My family and I have been part of CCCC since 2006. I enjoy reading, writing, exercising, and cooking. I believe in connecting with people. I enjoy building relationships with people and seeing them flourish in the context of who we are all made to be. I love sharing genuine relationships where we can all be truly known, yet be encouraged to be more like Jesus, and this is why I love small groups.

Most men can lead a small group if they're willing. I am excited about helping men grow in this way even if they don't see themselves as leaders right now. We'll start as a traditional group but I am hopeful that through some training and encouragement most of the men who join my group will feel equipped and excited about leading their own group in the future.

I have been married for almost 7 years to my wife Ravin. We have 2 boys that are 4 (Samuel) and almost 6 (Elijah). I have been attending CCCC since 2016 when we first came to Texas. I retired from the U.S. Coast Guard in 2019. I like to play disc golf, fish, and spend time with family. It gets a little crazy wrestling my boys sometimes but it's such a gift. I also have a passion for apologetics. After I began to follow Christ I joined my first small group in late 2016 where my 2 small group leaders pulled me aside and said they wanted to invest in me. Now that it is my turn to lead a group, I too want to invest in others. This is my first group as a navigator and I am looking forward to how the Holy Spirit will move in us and grow us in Christ.

We've been married for 9 years and have one son named Judah who turns 4 in October. We love to hang out and spend time with family and friends. We love to travel, and a couple times a year you can expect us to go to Disneyworld. Jordan is a Disney Travel Agent and Cody is the student director for the 528 campus. We love the college/young adult age group. That time in our lives was so much fun and instrumental in our understanding of Jesus. Our hope is to journey with you and help you understand Jesus more fully and embrace the life He has for you!
