

Aaron Lutz

Aaron joined the CCCC staff in 2013 and currently serves as the Campus Pastor of the East 96 Campus and Programming Director. Aaron graduated from Texas A&M University with a BBA, and holds a Master of Theology (ThM) from Dallas Theological Seminary. Aaron and his wife, Bethany, have three children: Addie Jo, Evan, and Annalee.

Dave Vanderweide

Dave, Carla, and their son, Matt, have been part of CCCC since February 2, 2003. They were part of the church planting team at West Campus and East 96. Dave served as an Egret Bay Campus Elder prior to helping launch East 96. Dave is a Navigator, plays in the band, serves on the Generosity Team, and leads Starting Point at East 96. Dave is an orthopedic surgeon and a Governor appointed member of the Texas Medical Board. His wife, Carla, is a nurse.

Vijay Rajaji

Vijay and Sonia started attending CCCC in February 2001. Vijay served on the drama team followed by 10 years serving in various roles throughout Student Ministry. Vijay is currently a Navigator, Group Guide, and leads the First Impressions team at the East 96 campus. Vijay and Sonia have two children, Maya and Samir. Sonia serves as a Children's Ministry Director at East 96. Vijay is a trader for Hercules Transport and a graduate of Carnegie Mellon University.

Case Ricks

Case started attending CCCC in 1996. Prior to joining the East 96 launch team, Case and his wife, Allie, served for many years in Student Ministry at the Egret Bay campus. Case continues to serve in Student Ministry as well as Starting Point. Allie serves on the Setup and Teardown team at East 96. Case and Allie are navigators and help lead an Expectant Parents class for CCCC. Case is a graduate of Southwestern University and of Texas Chiropractic College. He and Allie have three children: Declan, Callen, and Isla.

Matthew Neighbors

Matthew, Allyson, and their daughters, Hannah and Ella, have been attending CCCC since 2004. Allyson and the girls serve in Children's Ministry. Together, Matthew and Allyson have led small groups for 12 years, and Allyson is a Group Guide. Matthew serves on the Finance team and First Impressions setup team. Matthew is graduate of Texas A&M University and a school principal in Galveston ISD. Allyson is a nurse practitioner.